

Resident Refusals by Court-Appointed Guardians or Activated Powers of Attorney for Health Care

Facility Name

Resident's First & Last Name

I understand that only court-appointed guardians and activated power of attorneys for health care have the right to refuse participation on a resident's behalf. As the facility administrator, I verify that the individuals who have refused on behalf of the above residents are in fact a court-appointed guardian or power of attorney for health care.

Administrator Signature

Date